

For Immediate Release

Media Contact

Mary Palmquist (303) 268-6545

Adelphia Recovery Trust Intends to File Extension for 2007 Federal Income Tax Return

Wilmington, DE, March 14, 2008 – The Adelphia Recovery Trust ("ART") announced today that it intends to apply for an automatic six-month extension for filing its 2007 Federal income tax return. With the extension, the ART's 2007 Federal income tax return is expected to be filed on or before October 15, 2008.

The ART Declaration of Trust and the Adelphia Plan of Reorganization require the ART to provide annual Federal income tax information to holders of beneficial interests in the ART. The ART intends to provide these holders with information for the 2007 tax year when it has finalized its own Federal income tax return. Holders may direct questions to creditor.inquiries@adelphia.com. However, the ART does not intend to and will not provide tax advice to holders. The ART strongly encourages holders to consult their own tax advisors.

About Adelphia Recovery Trust

Adelphia Recovery Trust is a Delaware Statutory Trust that was formed pursuant to the First Modified Fifth Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Adelphia Communications Corporation and Certain Affiliated Debtors, which became effective February 13, 2007. The ART holds certain litigation claims transferred pursuant to the Plan against various third parties and exists to prosecute the causes of action transferred to it for the benefit of holders of ART interests.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements. All statements (other than statements of historical fact) contained in this release, including statements that address future plans, goals, expectations, activities, events or developments, are forward-looking statements. We have tried, where possible, to use words such as "anticipate," "if," "believe," "plan," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "forecast," "initiative," "objective," "goal," "project," "outlook," "priorities," "target," "evaluate," "pursue," "seek," "potential," "continue," "designed,"

“impact,” “may,” “would,” “could,” “should,” “will” and other similar expressions to identify forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and are subject to substantial risks, uncertainties and other factors, many of which are beyond our control. We cannot guarantee that any forward-looking statement will be realized, as actual results may differ materially from those identified or implied in any forward-looking statement. Among the factors that may cause actual results to differ materially are the following: changes in or interpretations of laws, regulations and policies; and the tax effects of various aspects of the Plan and the Trust. All forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they were made. The Trust does not undertake a duty to publicly update or revise such forward-looking statements or other information contained herein, whether as a result of new information, subsequent events, circumstances, changes in expectations or otherwise.