Adelphia Recovery Trust Announces Full Resolution of Motorola Suit and Completion of Settlement.

Wilmington, DE, December 30, 2009 - The Adelphia Recovery Trust (the "Trust") announced today that the lawsuit entitled Adelphia Communications Corporation, et al. v. Motorola, Inc., et al., Adversary Case No. 06-01558-REG has been fully resolved pursuant to a settlement reached among all parties to the suit. The settlement was approved by United States Bankruptcy Judge Cecelia G. Morris on December 14, 2009, and payment to the Trust pursuant to the settlement was made on December 29, 2009. A copy of Judge Morris' order approving the settlement and describing its terms is available in the "Important Documents Adelphia Recovery Trust" section of Adelphia's website at www.adelphiarestructuring.com.

The Trust in its discretion may retain some or all of its settlement proceeds for funding its operations, including expenses incurred to maintain and administer the Trust and prosecute Trust litigation, all subject to the terms and conditions of the Plan and the Declaration of Trust. No decision has been made by the Trust as to the amount or timing of distributions, if any, to Trust interest holders.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements. All statements (other than statements of historical fact) contained in this release, including statements that address future plans, goals, expectations, activities, events or developments, are forward-looking statements. The Trust has tried, where possible, to use words such as "anticipate," "if," "believe," "plan," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "forecast," "initiative," "objective," "goal," "project," "outlook," "priorities," "target," "evaluate," "pursue," "seek," "potential," "continue," "designed," "impact," "may," "would," "could," "should," "will" and other similar expressions to identify forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and are subject to substantial risks, uncertainties and other factors, many of which are beyond our control. The Trust cannot guarantee that any forward-looking statement will be realized, as actual results may differ materially from those identified or implied in any forward-looking statement. Among the factors that may cause actual results to differ materially are the following: changes in or interpretations of laws, regulations and policies; and the tax effects of various aspects of the Plan and the Trust. All forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they were made. The Trust does not undertake a duty to publicly update or revise such forward-looking statements or other information contained herein, whether as a result of new information, subsequent events, circumstances, changes in expectations or otherwise.
